Dear Constance,

RE: MARKETS

Thank you for your recent correspondence in respect of your support for markets.

Indoor and outdoor markets can remain open during the Coronavirus restrictions in England, provided they sell essential retail goods like food. Those selling non-essential goods must close. Of course, social distancing and other measures should be followed in line with the provided guidance.

Like you, I look forward to seeing restrictions eased further once it is safe to do so - something which I hope will be able to happen sooner rather than later.

Once again, thank you for having taken the time to contact me and if I can ever be of any further assistance to you then please do not hesitate to contact me again.

With best wishes,
